This is a paid position, with a competitive rate of pay based on experience.

Key Responsibilities

- Assess, treat, and manage injuries sustained by players
 - Provide pitch-side first aid and make decisions regarding players' fitness to continue playing
 - Deliver injury prevention advice, including warm-ups, stretching, and recovery strategies
 - Apply sports massage, strapping, and taping techniques
 - Communicate effectively with coaches regarding player injury status and rehabilitation plans
 - Maintain accurate, secure medical records in line with professional standards
 - Ensure strict confidentiality at all times in accordance with SST/CSP codes of conduct

Skills and Attributes

- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
 - Strong organisational skills and attention to detail
 - Ability to work independently and as part of a multidisciplinary team
 - Flexible, reliable, conscientious and committed approach
 - Ability to manage time effectively and meet deadlines

Qualifications and Requirements

- BSc or MSc in Sports Therapy or Physiotherapy
 - Membership with the Society of Sports Therapists (SST) or MCSP/HCPC (desirable)
 - Valid Emergency First Aid qualification
 - Eligibility for an Enhanced RFU DBS check
 - Current professional indemnity insurance
